

3.3.6 Short monographs

International publishers, for example Palgrave Macmillan, Routledge, and Springer have launched a new peer-reviewed publication format, which corresponds to a monograph in publication type but with a length of manuscripts between that of an article and a traditional monograph. At meetings on 9 June and 9 December 2022, the Publication Forum Steering Group has decided that short monograph series should be stored separately in Publication Forum at Level 1.