

2.1 Publication Forum

The Publication Forum, established in 2010 under the auspices of the Federation of Finnish Learned Societies (TSV), is a system to support the quality assessment of scientific publication activities in all disciplines, based on the classification of domestic and foreign publication series and book publishers. The rating decisions are made by nearly 300 expert members of the 23 evaluation panels covering various disciplines, universities and research institutes.