

3.2.1 Journals/series

A publication series can be a scientific journal, book series or a series of proceedings of a regularly organised conference. Journals, book series and proceedings with an ISSN are classified using the title recorded at the International ISSN Centre. The main rule is that the book series of Finnish book publishers are classified separately in the Publication Forum, while the book series of foreign book publishers are not classified.