

4.3 Level 2

Level 2 is the leading category of the Publication Forum classification, and contains only a very limited group of peer-reviewed publication channels. Level 2 is awarded mainly to the leading international publication channels, but also to leading national-language channels in the social sciences and humanities.