

4.6 Considerations to be taken into account in the evaluation

The panels need to have a discussion about the importance of impact factors, as well as about the importance of the Norwegian and Danish ratings, in the evaluation of publication channels in their field. There also needs to be a discussion about how to deal with review journals in the panel and how open access is taken into account in the assessment.