

4.6.1.2 Norwegian and Danish level ratings

In addition, the panels have the ratings given for journals, series and book publishers in the Norwegian and Danish panel evaluation, which is comparable to the Publication Forum. Common to these classifications is that they are also based on an expert assessment, although impact factors and may be used to inform the evaluation, depending on the discipline. Norway and Denmark have a two-tier rating, where class 1 is basic and class 2 is the leading level.
