

6. The work of panels

The most important task of panels is the classification of publications channels in their fields. Evaluation work is done on the JUFO portal or at panel meetings. During their four-year term, the panels will also carry out an annual complementary evaluation in which previously unclassified or Level 0 rated channels can be added to Level 1, as well as a review of ratings in which the Level 2 and Level 3 are updated.